4. Going Green Matters

Sustainability has never been a more important factor in driving customer preferences. It's critical for all establishments, not just hotels, to be conscious of. We have a large variety of sustainable disposables and equipment that will help you reduce your carbon footprint.

Urban Cultivator[®] It's a fresh new world

We now live in a world where consumers are ever more conscious of where their food is sourced and have a better understanding on the impacts of GM (genetically modified) foods & pesticides effects. These days, there is also an increase in plant-based meals among diners. All these trends make a point of difference which can make a big impact in your hotel.

From Farm to Fork

Allowing you to harvest as soon as your plate is ready.

Organic All The Way

Align your hotel with the organic movement by not using any chemicals or sprays, keeping produce fresh.

Easy to Grow

A fully automated appliance that makes growing easy; concentrate on service instead of growing.

Induction Cooking

Eco efficient performance: Induction cooking is an extremely eco-efficient cooking system because there is very little energy loss (<5%). Unlike cooking with gas where energy loss is much higher because a lot of gas energy is converted into useless kitchen smoke. When cooking with induction, heat is transmitted directly from the inductor straight to the fry pan, locking in 95% of energy making induction smokeless and more energy efficient.

Reduced Cooking Times: Since induction is 95% more energy efficient compared to gas cook top, they can boil water much faster than a traditional cook top.
